-VOLUME 16, NO. 1, MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 2000-

(According to a spokesperson for John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, a 71-year-old Houston man who was transported by Lifeflight Air Ambulance to the Galveston-area hospital Thursday afternoon after he suffered severe electrical burns, is in critical condition in the hospital's burn ward. Ashton Savoy, 71, was injured while trying to free his fishing line from an overhead power line with a metal pole and hook. He was injured around 3:45 p.m. on Gum Slew Bridge on FM 2684 in the South Liberty Oil Field area. Savoy suffered 2nd and 3rd degree burns to his chest and abdomen and his left side, covering about 50 to 70 percent of his body.)

(After over 6 years on the lam, Robert Lee "Bearman" Davis is once again in the Liberty County Jail. Davis, now 44, escaped from the local jail in April of 1993. He was recaptured last Nov. in Seattle. Davis had changed his name to Clarence Jones, but apparently not his behavior. According to Liberty Co. Sheriff's Capt. Leroy Hanel, Davis had spent about 33 months incarcerated while on the loose. Originally jailed on a charge of aggravated robbery, Davis will now face escape charges as well.)

During executive session tonight at 7pm, the Dayton City Council will discuss litigation regarding force main failures. The meeting will be in council chamber of City Hall. Tuesday, County Commissioners, during their 9am meeting, will award bids for two 10-ton air conditioner-heating units.
