-VOLUME 16, NO. 16, MONDAY JANUARY 24, 2000-

Liberty County Commissioners will meet in workshop session tomorrow to discuss dealing with the budgetary problems in Precinct #4. As we have reported recently, information from County Auditor Harold Seay indicates that Commissioner Toby Wilburn will see his precinct run completely out of money by the end of March. The workshop will be on the first floor of the courthouse, after commissioners regular meeting tomorrow.

The Dayton City Council Thursday night unanimously approved a moratorium that prohibits the creation of new manufactured homes parks in Dayton and locating a manufactured homes on city lots for a period of 90 days. The order is to give council, the City Planning Commission and consultant Jay Rice sufficient time to write a new ordinance regulating manufactured homes and manufactured home parks. The moratorium does not prohibit anyone from moving a manufactured home on to an existing manufactured home park in the Dayton city limits.

Sales tax rebates for the month of January in Liberty County show an increase of 24.83% over January 1999 for the county as a whole. In the city of Liberty, sales tax rebates for the month totaled more than $130,000 from the State Comptroller's Office, an increase of 22.45%. Dayton's rebate check was about 50% higher than last year, at $42,000. Figures reported this month reflect local sales taxes collected in November and reported in December to the State Comptroller's Office.

The Liberty Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce Monthly Luncheon will be Wednesday at noon in the Liberty City Hall Auditorium. The luncheon will feature a visit from members of the Liberty County 4-H Mounted Drill Team and the meal will be barbecue, catered by James Bricker. Cost is $6 per person and you can make reservations by calling the Chamber at 336-5736.
