-VOLUME 16, NO. 19, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2000-

The Liberty City Council Tuesday night scheduled a series of interviews with six semi-finalists for the position of Liberty City Manager. The applicants are Stephen D. Broyles of Muenster, Texas; Kevin Carruth of Daingerfield, Texas; Dewey P. Cashwell Jr. of Martinsville, Virginia; Bryan Easum of Tulia, Texas; Robert T. "Bo" McDaniel of Oak Ridge, Tennessee and Bill J. Shipp Jr. of Addison, Texas. Council agreed to schedule a full-day of interviews on Friday February 4th, with that executive session meeting held at hotel near Bush Intercontinental Airport. According to Mayor Bruce Halstead, the applicants can be flown in and shuttled to a hotel to meet with council members. Council will then select three finalists for a final series of interviews to be conducted in Liberty.

Liberty County Commissioners voted Tuesday to keep the outdoor burn curtailment order in place and, regardless of how much rain falls in the next couple of days, that order cannot be lifted until next Tuesday at the earliest. Commissioners are no longer giving permission to burn outside a screened container and violating the order is a class C misdemeanor. Out of control fires can result in liability for damages and arson charges.

Testing for those interested in working for the Census 2000 in Liberty County will be tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the Ames City Hall on Martin Drive. Everyone is eligible to apply and take the test tomorrow and bilingual people are especially needed. The Census 2000 Committee is also in the process of locating testing sites in Dayton and Hardin. Census workers earn from $9 to $13 an hour. For more information on becoming a census worker, call 1-888-325-7733.

The Liberty Jubilee Parade is scheduled for Saturday March 25th at 10 a.m. in downtown Liberty and all individuals, businesses, churches and civic organizations are welcome to participate. There is no entry fee, but the deadline to enter is Friday March 17th. This year's theme, "Heroes and Heroines of the USA", was chosen by the students at Liberty Elementary School. Entry forms are available at the Liberty City Hall or call Nick Vaught at 336-5449 for more information.
