-VOLUME 16, NO. 2, TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 2000-

Yesterday marked the last day of candidate filing for the March 14th Democratic and Republican Primary Elections in Liberty County. County Party Chairs report only two last minute filings. Democratic Party Chair John Archer said Odell McDuffie, Jr. filed to run against incumbent Royce Wheeler for Precinct #6 County Constable and Republican Party Chair Richard Pegues said Will Cox of Cleveland made it official by filing for Liberty County Sheriff by petition yesterday. Cox's Republican Primary opponent will be Roy House of Liberty.

A pasture fire near the intersection of CR 1660 and CR 1661 in the Ames area Friday evening required the efforts of thirty-three firefighters from six different departments before finally being extinguished. Hardin Volunteer Firefighters arrived first at the blaze shortly after 5:33 p.m. and Hardin Fire Chief Sean Webb said, at one point, the fire was less than 20 feet from a nearby house. All told, personnel and equipment from the Liberty, Ames, Devers, Hull-Daisetta and Raywood Fire Departments were needed to stop the fire, which burned about 15 acres.

DPS Trooper Donnie Smith reports that traffic fatalities in Liberty County in 1999 were way down compared to 1998. According to DPS statistics, in 1999, 18 people were killed in a total of 17 accidents on Liberty County roads. In 1998, 34 people died in 26 accidents. Trooper Smith said that part of the reason for the decline in fatal accidents is the fact that there were more DPS Troopers on the roads in 1999, compared to 1998.

In spite of much to do over Y2K, local law enforcement agencies report a mostly quiet New Year's Eve in Liberty County. Liberty and Dayton Police and Fire Departments, and the DPS all report last Friday night was pretty much routine.
